

Code of Conduct

Youth Code of Conduct

When attending an annual Family Retreat, as a Davidson student I will:

- be polite
- express my opinion positively
- be respectful
- respect the thoughts of others even if I don't agree
- listen with an open mind
- watch out for each other and make sure everyone feels included
- be in control of myself
- treat others the way I want to be treated
- follow all of the safety rules
- laugh with people - not at people
- have fun!

Code of Conduct

Parent Code of Conduct

When attending an annual Family Retreat, as a Davidson parent I will:

- be respectful of all Davidson youth, parents, presenters, and Davidson Institute staff
- be mindful of the location and actions of my Davidson youth; realize when their actions are disruptive to others and take necessary steps to correct the behavior
- make every effort to get my Davidson youth to attend scheduled sessions, as well as arrive and pick-up my Davidson youth on time
- remember that Davidson Institute has created rules for valid reasons
- recognize that it is not appropriate to ask staff to make exceptions, as it is unfair to other attendees,
- be respectful of presenters' time during their presentation, and recognize that many other parents may have comments and questions to share
- listen with an open mind and learn from others
- behave in a way that sets a positive example for others attending the Family Retreat
